Cookie Notice

Our website use cookies, to enhance your experience and to improve our website functionalities.

A 'cookie' is a small piece of text file that is stored on your computer when you access certain websites. It collects some information about you such as your IP address, device ID, location, and records how you move around and what you do on the website.

If your browser is set to accept cookies, the cookies you allow us to store on your computer will be kept until their expiration date is reached, until you disable the cookies in our cookie consent tool or until you delete the cookies manually in your browser. If you use your browser settings to block essential cookies, you may experience some inconveniences whilst browsing our site.

How we use cookies

We generally use cookies to help deliver the functionalities of our website so that you may have a pleasant browsing experience when using our website. Cookies can be used to remember your preferences, thereby letting you navigate between pages efficiently.

We may also use cookies to verify your access to protected pages or accounts and for carrying out essential security checks.

We use cookies to analyse traffic to our website and to gather information about your preferences for embedded YouTube videos. We may combine information that we collect from the web analytics services we use and their cookies or similar technologies, to analyse how you, and other people, use our website and therefor help us provide you with a better website

We may also use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes.

Data Protection Laws gives you certain rights in respect of the personal information that we hold about you. For further details please refer to our Privacy Notice.

Categories of Cookies

Strictly Necessary: These cookies are absolutely essential for our website to function properly. They ensure basic functionalities and security features of the website, anonymously.

How to manage cookies

Except for strictly necessary cookies, you can choose to accept or reject cookies through our cookie preference tool via the cookie banner. You can change or withdraw your consent at any time.

You can also manage cookies through the browser settings of your computer, smart phone or other web-enabled devices. Your browser's 'help' function will tell you how to do this.

Most modern browsers will allow you to:

1. see the cookies that have been set and delete them on an individual basis
2. block third-party cookies
3. block cookies from particular sites
4. block all cookies from being set
5. delete all cookies when you close your browser

However, please remember that cookies are often used to enable and improve certain functions on a website. If you choose to switch certain cookies off, it is likely to affect how websites work. If you block cookies completely, many websites will not work properly and some functionality on these websites will not work at all.

When our website provides links to other websites, please bear in mind that these third-party websites will have their own cookie notice/policy that will govern your use of their website. We recommend you read their policies, as Hackney CVS is not responsible or liable for their privacy practices.
